Digital Photography Retreat:
'Digital Spirit'
 Led by
Revd Nigel L Chapman

Monday 27th September to Wednesday 29th September 2010

Digital Spirit

*This retreat will give you the chance of 'Exploring and Nurturing Christian Spirituality through Digital Photography'.
It is not about technical knowhow, but about being open to meeting with God.
So whether you are an accomplished
photographer with all the kit, or a beginner with your first digital camera, this retreat will enable you to see your photographs in a different light.*

Revd Nigel L Chapman is the Children's and Youth Work Adviser in the Archdeaconry of York. Nigel was a Church Army Evangelist for 23 years before being ordained in 2005.

Since his teens he has had a love for photography and only recently went digital, which opened up a whole new way of using photography. In 2005 as part of a sabbatical, Nigel researched the relationship between images and how they can be used to help nurture personal spirituality. He believes that using and creating images can enable anyone to step into a place called 'Holy Ground', to bring them into God's direction and to feed on God in our hearts, not in words, but in images.

Cost:

The cost of the Mini Retreat is £120.00
