A Quiet Day Led by Margaret Sentamu

Monday 17th of May 2010
9.45am - 4.00pm

Come Away with me... an invitation to spend time with God

“And Jesus said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a lonely/quiet place, and rest a while.” For many were coming and going and had no leisure/chance even to eat.” (Mark 6:31)

We lead such hectic lives today that there is no time to do anything spiritually meaningful, it seems. The same is true whether we are in employment or in retirement. How many times have I heard someone say, “I am busier now that I have retired than when I was in full time employment.”

Here is an invitation to “come away” for a while, take stock, have a spiritual MOT, re energise your batteries before continuing in your ministerial calling. Jesus eagerly awaits to give us rest and to feed both our bodies and souls.

There will be short inputs followed by huge chunks of time for quiet reflection, prayer, walks (weather permitting), reading, listening to music or simply ‘being’ with the Lord.

So come and enjoy being in God’s presence!

Margaret’s roots are in Uganda although she and her husband have lived and ministered in this country for most of their adult lives. They have four grown up children. Margaret is currently working as a freelance diversity and recruitment consultant helping organisations to harness difference in the workplace.*

Her interests are mainly in the areas of health, education and alleviating poverty particularly in the Global South. She is widely sought after as a public speaker and enjoys conducting retreats and quiet days when time permits!
