"Cornflakes Theology"

An interface between the Church and Secular Society

Led by Rev. Raymond Eveleigh
Thursday 8th March 2012
10am—3.30pm

What is 'Cornflakes Theology'? Let's just say it is a challenging way of examining our beliefs and considering exactly what our Scriptures are saying. Be aware that we will find ourselves questioned and questioning as we attempt to deepen our understanding of the meaning of familiar Bible stories.

Many ageing congregations, getting smaller in number, are frequently despairing, negatively saying 'we can't afford to keep the church building in good repair', 'we can't pay quota' and asking with a heavy heart 'what can we do about it?' Well, 'Cornflakes Theology' aims to do something about it, through enlightenment, excitement and vision – things the Church needs as much today as it ever did and directed at regular churchgoers as well as those outside the church.

'Theology is perhaps first and foremost a celebration which helps us find a way or a truth that leads us into a life.'

Archbishop Rowan Williams.'

Just bring a Bible and an open mind!
Service of Holy Communion will end the day.

No need to book—just turn up!

A fee is required of £15 which will include lunch and hot drinks throughout the day.
